Worldwide Emergency Assistance Services

* Up to the lesser of the Trip Cost paid or the limit of Coverage for which benefits are requested and the appropriate plan cost has been paid. Maximum of $10,000.

Part A - TRAVEL PROTECTION

Trip Cancellation/ Trip Interruption: The Insurer will pay a benefit, up to the maximum shown on the Schedule of Coverage and Services, if You are prevented from taking or continuing Your covered Trip due to the following Unforeseen events:

- a) Sickness, Accidental Injury, or death of You, Your Traveling Companion, or Business Partner, or Family Member of You or Your Traveling Companion,; which results in medically imposed restrictions as certified by a Physician at the time of loss preventing Your continued participation in the Trip. A Physician must advise cancellation of the Trip on or before the Scheduled Departure Date.
- b) Strike that causes complete cessation of services for at least 24 consecutive hours.
- c) Weather which causes complete cessation of services of Your Common Carrier for at least 24 consecutive hours;
- d) You or Your Traveling Companion are hijacked, quarantined, required to serve on a jury, required to appear as a witness in a legal action, provided You or a Traveling Companion is not a party to the legal action or appearing as a law enforcement officer, subpoenaed, the victim of felonious assault within 10 days of departure; or having Your or Your Traveling Companion's principal place of residence made uninhabitable by fire, flood, or other Natural Disaster; or burglary of Your principal place of residence within 10 days of departure.

e) Bankruptcy or Default of Your Travel Supplier which occurs more than 14 days following Your Effective Date. Coverage is not provided for the Bankruptcy or Default of the agency from whom You purchased Your Land/Sea Arrangements. Benefits will be paid due to Bankruptcy or Default of an airline only if no alternate transportation is available. If alternate transportation is available, benefits will be limited to the change fee charged to allow You to transfer to another airline in order to get to Your intended destination.

f) If within 30 days of Your departure, a politically motivated Terrorist Attack occurs within the territorial limits of the City listed on Your itinerary. The Terrorist Attack must occur after the Effective Date of Your Trip Cancellation coverage.

g) You or Your Traveling Companion who are military personnel, and are called to emergency duty for a disaster other than war.

h) You or Your Traveling Companion being directly involved in a traffic Accident substantiated by a police report, while en route to departure.

i) The death or hospitalization of Your Host at Destination.

j) Natural disaster at the site of Your destination which renders Your destination accommodations uninhabitable.

If Your Travel Supplier cancels Your Trip, You are covered up the cost of the ticket or the reissue fee charged by the airline for the tickets. You must have covered the entire cost of the Trip including the airfare.

"Cancel For Any Reason" Protection:
Applicable only when purchased at the time of original plan purchase and the appropriate additional premium has been paid.

Not available for residents of Washington State

Be advised that the Company requires the You to purchase Cancel for any Reason coverage up to or before final Trip payment. If after final Trip payment, this coverage is not available.

The Company will pay a benefit, up to the maximum shown on Your Schedule of Coverage and Services, if You are prevented from taking Your Trip for all reasons up to 48 hours prior to departure.

All cancellations must be reported directly to the Travel Supplier within 72 hours of the event causing the need to cancel, unless the event prevents it, and then as soon as is reasonably possible. If the cancellation is not reported within the specified 72-hour period, the Company will not pay for additional charges which would not have been incurred had You notified the Travel Supplier in the specified period. If the event prevents You from reporting the cancellation, the 72-hour notice requirement does not apply; however, You must, if requested, provide proof that said event prevented him or her from reporting the cancellation within the specified period.

Trip Cancellation: non-refundable cancellation charges imposed by Your Travel Supplier and/or airfare cancellation charges for flights joining or departing Your Land/Sea

Arrangements; or the additional costs You may incur as a result of a change in the per-person occupancy rate of prepaid travel arrangements if a person booked to share accommodations with You cancels his/her Trip for a covered reason and You do not cancel.

Trip Interruption: unused, non-refundable land or sea expenses prepaid to Travel Supplier and/or the airfare paid, to return home or rejoin the original Land/Sea Arrangements (limited to the cost of one-way Economy Fare by scheduled carrier, from the point of destination to the point of origin shown on the original travel tickets) less the value of applied credit from an unused return travel ticket; or the additional costs You may incur as a result of a change in the per-person occupancy rate of prepaid travel arrangements if a person booked to share accommodations with You cancels his/her Trip for a covered reason and You do not cancel.

In no event shall the amount reimbursed exceed the lesser of; the amount You pre-paid for Your Trip, or the maximum benefit shown on the Schedule of Coverage and Services.

Trip Delay: The Insurer will reimburse You for covered expenses on a one time basis, up to the maximum shown in the Schedule of Coverage and Services, if You are delayed en route to or from the covered Trip for 6 or more hours due to a covered reason. Covered expenses include Your additional transportation cost to join the Trip or return home, including up to $150 per day for reasonable additional expenses incurred for meals and lodging, or any prepaid, unused, non-refundable land and water accommodations. Covered Reasons for travel delay are: Any delay of a Common Carrier (including Inclement Weather); You or Your Traveling Companion being delayed by a traffic Accident while en route to a departure, in which You or Your Traveling Companion is directly or not directly involved; lost or stolen passports, money, or travel documents; quarantine; hijacking, unannounced Strike, Natural Disaster.

Part B - MEDICAL PROTECTION

Emergency Evacuation: The Insurer will pay, subject to the limitations set out herein, for Covered Emergency Evacuation Expenses reasonably incurred You suffer an Injury or Emergency Sickness that warrants Your Emergency Evacuation while on a Trip. Benefits payable are subject to the Maximum Amount per person shown on the Schedule of Coverage and Services for all Emergency Evacuations due to all Injuries from the same Accident or all Emergency Sicknesses from the same or related causes. A legally licensed Physician, in coordination with the Assistance Company, must order the Emergency Evacuation and must certify that the severity of Your Injury or Emergency Sickness warrants Your Emergency Evacuation to the closest adequate medical facility. In the sole discretion of the Assistance Company, it must be determined that such Emergency Evacuation is required due to the inadequacy of local facilities. The certification and approval for Emergency Evacuation must be coordinated through the most direct and economical conveyance and route possible, such as air or land ambulance, or commercial airline carrier. Covered Emergency Evacuation Expenses are those for Medically Necessary Transportation, including reasonable and customary medical services and supplies incurred in connection with Your Emergency Evacuation. Expenses for Transportation must be: (a) recommended by the attending Physician; (b) required by the standard regulations of the conveyance transporting You and (c) reviewed and pre-approved by the Assistance Company. The Insurer will also pay reasonable and customary charges for escort expenses required by You, if You are disabled during a Trip and an escort is recommended in writing, by Your attending Physician and must be pre-approved by the Assistance Company. If You are hospitalized for more than 7 days following a Covered Emergency Evacuation Expense, the Insurer will pay subject to the limitations set out herein, for expenses to bring one person chosen by You to and from the Hospital or other medical facility where You are confined if You are alone, not to exceed the cost of one round-trip economy airfare ticket and pay reasonable, additional meals and lodging not to exceed $200 per day.

Medically Necessary Repatriation: Following a covered Emergency Evacuation expense or a covered medical expense, the Insurer will pay to return You from the location to which You were evacuated or became sick or injured to Your return destination via Common Carrier within one year from Your original Trip completion date. Commercial airfare costs will be in the same class of service, as Your original airline tickets, or in business or first class as in compliance with Your medical necessities and requirements upon Your discharge, less refunds from Your unused transportation tickets. In addition to the above covered expenses, if the Insurer has previously evacuated You to a medical facility, the Insurer will pay Your airfare costs from that facility to Your primary residence, within one year from Your original Scheduled Return Date, less refunds from Your unused transportation tickets. Airfare costs will be economy, or first class if Your original tickets are first class. This benefit is available only if it is not provided under another coverage in the policy.

Emergency Evacuation means Your medical condition warrants immediate transportation from the place where You are injured or sick to the nearest Hospital where appropriate medical treatment can be obtained. Transportation means any land, sea or air conveyance required to transport You during an Emergency Evacuation. Transportation includes, but is not limited to, Common Carrier, air ambulances, land ambulances and private motor vehicles.

Emergency Sickness means an illness or disease, diagnosed by a legally licensed Physician, which meets all of the following criteria: (1) there is a present severe or acute symptom requiring immediate care and the failure to obtain such care could reasonably result in serious deterioration of Your condition or place Your life in jeopardy; (2) the severe or acute symptom occurs suddenly and unexpectedly; and (3) the severe or acute symptom occurs while Your coverage is in force and during Your Trip.

Repatriation of Remains: The Insurer will pay reasonable Covered Expenses incurred to return Your body to Your primary residence if You die during the covered Trip. This will not exceed the maximum shown on the Schedule of Coverage and Services. Covered Expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses for embalming, cremation, minimally necessary coffins for transport, and transportation.

All transportation must be authorized and arranged by the Assistance Company.

CLAIMS PROCEDURE

To facilitate prompt claims settlement:

TRIP CANCELLATION CLAIMS: IMMEDIATELY Call Travel Supplier and Travel Insured International to report Your cancellation and avoid non-Covered Expenses due to late reporting. The Travel Insured International will then advise You on how to obtain the appropriate form to be completed by You and the attending Physician.

INTERRUPTION: Obtain medical statements from the doctors in attendance in the country where Sickness or Accident occurred. These statements should give complete diagnosis, stating that the Sickness or Accident prevented traveling on dates contracted. Provide all unused transportation tickets, official receipts, etc.

TRIP DELAY: Obtain any specific dated documentation, which provides proof of the reason for delay (airline or cruise line forms, medical statements, etc). Submit this documentation along with Your Trip itinerary and all receipts from additional expenses incurred.

MEDICAL EXPENSES: Obtain receipts from the providers of service, etc., stating the amount paid and listing the diagnosis and treatment.
